Next Up: Apolis Common Gallery/New LA Flagship Launch

On November 03, 2011 at 9:57 AM

As mentioned on The Eye previously, the good folks at Apolis Global are in the final stages of launching their new flagship store in the Arts District of Los Angeles. The space will serve as both a gathering space for installations, and exhibits (focusing on showcasing local talent), as well as a fully-functioning retail space selling some of our favorite Apolis merchandise. The grand opening is November 10th.
